

Public Statement

Municipal Response to COVID-19 Alert Level 3

December 22, 2021

In response to the Chief Medical Officer of Health's decision to move the province to alert level 3 effective 12:01 am on December 23, 2021, please note the following measures that are effective Thursday, December 23, 2021:

- (1) The Town Hall is open to public access; however, at most, three (3) members from the public can be in the Town Hall lobby at any given time to ensure physical distancing can be maintained. Please pay attention to door signage and floor markings.
- (2) In accordance with provincial guidance, the stadium is permitted to open "with a maximum capacity of 100 people or 50 per cent capacity per room or ice surface (whichever is less). Physical distancing must be maintained." The guidelines also state that "Amateur sport and recreation activities are limited to team practice, training and intra-squad competition. Inter-squad, inter-division, inter-league and inter-association competitions are not permitted." Please note, however, that the stadium will be closed from December 24, 2021, until January 4, 2022.
